MESSAGE TO PARENTS AND CARERS FROM THE HEAD

Wow – what a treat! The children started the day with an assembly from Skipping Pete from SkipBeatz. ‘Amazing’, ‘Awesome’, ‘Incredible’ were words that the children used to describe his skipping ability. The children in KS1 and 2 have then had a lesson with him and to see the hard work and energy they put in was fab!

I have just come out from watching Year 3 skip. I am sure we will have some super skippers on our hands and it will be great to see them try and match his enthusiasm!

I hope you all have a lovely weekend.

FoMT Update

If your child wishes to attend Cinema Night please pay by Tuesday 23rd January.

We would be grateful if year 4 parents could return the reply slip regarding the year 4 jackets by Monday 22nd January.

SMSC Weekly Snapshot

On Monday the children learned about Martin Luther King as it would have been his birthday. They discussed how he persevered to change laws in America so everyone was treated fairly. Here are some quotes from the children:

EYFS - 'We are all the same on the inside.' 'He is wearing a badge, it might be a Good to be Green badge because he is a good man.'

KS1/KS2 - 'He is persevering, trying and trying again to have the same rights as white skinned people.'

It is great to see the children truly understanding the meanings of our values.
