

POWERFUL ADJECTIVES - HAPPY

The words below are all synonyms for 'happy'. Place them in the sentence where they fit best. Use each word only once.

amused cheerful contented delighted ecstatic glad jovial overjoyed pleased thrilled

Even though Gary was ill, he remained cheerful.

Once she heard the news, Bina laughed in a delighted way.

I asked gran if she would like another cup of tea and she gave a pleased smile.

When Mark heard that he had a new baby sister, his ecstatic screams were deafening!

I offered Martin some more cake but he gave a contented smile and said that the delicious slice of apple pie had filled him up.

I thought the programme was boring, but Gurbir watched the whole thing with an amused smile.

Burt was thrilled to win the poetry competition.

Brian was glad to sell the painting for an extra £5.

Sam asked an overjoyed Alex for her hand in marriage.

Garth was always a jovial man, unlike his grumpy brother.

POWERFUL ADJECTIVES - SAD

The words below are all synonyms for 'sad'. Place them in the sentence where they fit best. Use each word only once.

blue depressed despairing despondent devastated gloomy glum heartbroken miserable unhappy

The farm had one skinny miserable looking horse and a tiny field of dry grass.

When Ian learnt there were no more tea bags in the office, he gave an unhappy frown.

It had rained all week and Henry was feeling blue .

The depressed writer returned from the bookshop. After six weeks on the shelf his book had been bought by nobody.

I tried to cheer up Philip but he was in a despondent mood.

Max had spent weeks on his painting. When he spilt ink over it, he gave a devastated cry.

Paula always thinks things will go wrong. She has such a gloomy outlook.

Alone in the lifeboat, Adrian looked around at the empty sea and let out a despairing howl.

Nip was not impressed with the new dog food and gave it a glum look when I poured it into his bowl.

My heartbroken grandfather told me that the cat had decided to live next door.

POWERFUL ADJECTIVES - NICE

The words below are all synonyms for 'nice'. Place them in the sentence where they fit best. Use each word only once.

charming considerate courteous friendly kindly likeable noble obedient pleasant polite

My uncle is a very likeable man. Everybody is happy to meet him.

Everybody gets on with Tom. He is a very likeable boy.

Because Kevin was such a polite boy, the waiter was happy to change his meal.

Harry soon fitted into his new school because of his friendly classmates.

My considerate aunt always chooses thoughtful birthday presents.

My kindly daughter helped me paint the room.

Sir Gawain was remembered as a brave and noble warrior.

Ken was pleasant company and we spent a nice afternoon in conversation over a cup of tea.

My courteous son always holds doors open for others.

The obedient pupil did everything he was asked to.

POWERFUL ADJECTIVES - BAD

The words below are all synonyms for 'bad'. Place them in the sentence where they fit best. Use each word only once.

cold-hearted greedy malicious mean nasty selfish unfriendly unkind unpleasant wicked

My cold-hearted uncle ignored the cries for help.

I tried to talk to the new pupil in the class but he was a very unfriendly boy

Our mean neighbour refused to throw our ball back over the fence.

I do not want to talk to or even spend any time with Boris. He is a very unpleasant person.

Simon is a nasty person and is always playing tricks on others.

A wicked grin spread across Dave's face as he crept up on his unsuspecting victim.

Khusro gave a greedy smile and poured the spare change into his pocket.

My selfish brother has used all of the bread so I can't make sandwiches.

Betty said some unkind things to me.

Lauren is always spreading malicious rumours.

POWERFUL ADJECTIVES - AFRAID

The words below are all synonyms for 'afraid'. Place them in the sentence where they fit best. Use each word only once.

concerned edgy hysterical jumpy nervous shy spooked timid uneasy worried

I watched my nervous cousin waiting to go up on stage.

Sheila gave the twisted bike frame a concerned look.

My cousin is waiting for an important phone call. He has been edgy all day.

As the rollercoaster approached the first bend, a worried look spread across Amit's face.

Adam's hysterical screams could be heard as soon as he entered the Ghost Train.

Ever since the loud bang, Terry has been terribly jumpy.

I hoped that Fred would enter the talent competition but he is very shy.

The spooked horse refused to go outside after the first flash of lightning.

My timid cousin wanted to hide when the big dog bounded over.

I had an uneasy feeling that something was going to go wrong.

POWERFUL ADJECTIVES - ANGRY

The words below are all synonyms for 'angry'. Place them in the sentence where they fit best. Use each word only once.

irritated bitter enraged furious outraged sullen cross fuming sulky maddened

Amit gave an irritated frown as the fly buzzed around his head.

Bill gave Kelly a bitter look. He had still not forgotten how she had behaved earlier.

He was enraged at the girl's foolishness.

I backed away from Mum's furious shouting when I told her I had broken her favourite vase.

Mary's outraged screams could be heard as soon as she saw the plans to close the library.

The boy sat in silence, refusing to talk to anybody and fixing everyone with a sullen glare.

Jenny was cross that it was not her turn to sit in the front of the car.

When I heard that Kerry had won the competition, even though she had clearly cheated, I looked around to see Katy fuming.

Zac walked around the shop with a sulky expression. He did not like going shopping with his parents.

Hugo was maddened that the shop had sold the last comic even though he had asked them to save him a copy.

POWERFUL ADJECTIVES - GOOD

The words below are all synonyms for 'good'. Place them in the sentence where they fit best. Use each word only once.

admirable amazing excellent exceptional nice outstanding pleasing satisfying superb superior

Mr. Williams was an excellent head teacher

I watched an amazing magic show at the weekend and told all of my friends about it.

The actor won many awards after his outstanding performance.

The crisp gave a satisfying crunch when I bit into it.

I have seen many talented artists but Bill is an exceptional painter.

The sculpture was a superb piece of craftsmanship.

The song had a pleasing tune.

Mr. Jenkins had done an admirable job in keeping everybody at the party entertained.

Heather wore a nice suit.

At the school fête, many people wanted to try a slice of Polly's dessert; it was a superior cake.

POWERFUL ADJECTIVES - HARD

The words below are all synonyms for 'hard'. Place them in the sentence where they fit best. Use each word only once.

arduous challenging complex difficult laborious mind-boggling problematic puzzling tough tricky

It was a difficult job to fit all of the clothes in the suitcase.

Tom found some of the tasks in the escape room puzzling at first but solved them after a few minutes' thought.

There was a challenging climb to the top of the mountain.

It was a tough job delivering all of the newspapers in the snowstorm.

We had to find a way around a complex maze of corridors before we found our way out.

Anthony did not know how to get himself out of the tricky situation.

None of the scientists was able to solve the mind-boggling equation.

Cutting the huge tree into small logs was a laborious task.

The family made an arduous journey through the desert.

Andrea was facing a problematic situation and could not think of any solution.

POWERFUL ADJECTIVES - HOT

The words below are all synonyms for 'hot'. Place them in the sentence where they fit best. Use each word only once.

blazing boiling humid muggy oppressive scalding scorching searing sweltering warm

He poured the boiling water down the sink.

The grass died under the scorching sun.

I did not like the humid atmosphere in the greenhouse.

That sweltering afternoon, hundreds of people went to cool off at the beach.

I put down the scalding coffee and waited for it to cool down.

Blazing magma shot out of the volcano.

We sat by the warm fire to dry our damp clothes.

The summer air was muggy in the valley and we hoped for rain.

The oppressive heat meant that everybody stayed inside until after sunset.

It was not pleasant travelling in the searing heat of the desert.

POWERFUL VERBS - COLD

The words below are all synonyms for 'cold'. Place them in the sentence where they fit best. Use each word only once.

arctic biting bitter brisk chilly cool crisp freezing frosty wintry

It was a beautiful but crisp morning.

During the freezing weather, the birds found it difficult to find food.

Be careful on the frosty pavements.

Mavis wore a scarf and woolly hat in the wintry air.

I wore four layers of clothes and was still cold in the arctic weather

Eric pulled on a jumper when the air grew chilly .

I cannot wait for warm spring instead of this bitter weather.

His thin gloves offered little protection against the biting wind.

Uncle Bert wears his favourite jumper as soon as the weather is cool enough.

I had to hold my hat down as I walked outside that brisk morning.