

To get rid of something or put an end to it

Foolish or untrue

To take turns

Having a strong desire to succeed

Somebody who does something
for enjoyment
instead of for money

Feeling worried,
nervous or afraid
about something

To be grateful for something

Lively and quick

Careful - taking care to avoid trouble or danger

To stop

To hold tightly

Showing sympathy
for other people
when they are suffering and
wanting to help them

Very important to the success of
something

Not prevented by

A current of cool air

Very sleepy or nearly asleep

To increase the size or scale of
something

Something that is necessary or needed

To trade or give in return for something else

An angry look
or stare

Rough and not nice

Not feeling sure

To gather in a
small, close
group

Exactly the same

To recognise someone or something and say or prove what that person or thing is

Difficult or impossible to read

To light a place
up, or shine
light on

Very large or huge

To separate
something so that it is on its own

To lie close or curl next to
something

Wanting to follow orders or instructions

To disagree with or be against
something

To sit on or near the edge of
something

Liked or wanted more than anything else

To keep something as it is

Shaking because of a strong feeling

To comfort somebody, to stop them from worrying

To need
something

To look like or be like someone
or something

Not easy to get

To grab

To shine with a soft, flickering
light

Feeling or showing understanding

To accept differences

To move or carry
from one person or place to another

Very large and terrific

Forceful or energetic

Not wanting to help